

Aging Advanced Research Training Seminar Series (AARTSS)

Sample 2-Year Curriculum*

TIME: 4:00-5:30 PM, 2nd Wednesday of the Month

CO-DIRECTORS: Mara Schonberg, MD and Courtney Millar, PhD

For more information and enrollment, please contact mschonbe@bidmc.harvard.edu and courtneymillar@hsl.harvard.edu

#	YEAR 1	YEAR 2
1	The Specifics of Specific Aims	The Specifics of Specific Aims
2	Budgets: Put Your Money Where Your Science Is	Measurement of Frailty and Function
3	Building and Managing Collaborative Research Teams	Inclusion and Diversity in Aging Research
4	Developing your Conceptual Model	Your Research and the Translational Science Spectrum
5	Mentor-Mentee Relations	Measurement, Reproducibility, and Rigor
6	Human Subjects Research/ Participant Recruitment	Pitching Your Work: the Elevator Speech
7	How to Win a Career Development / K-Award	Secondary Databases in Aging Research
8	Effectively Communicating Research Findings	Negotiating your First Job
9	Mock Editorial Board – Manuscript Review	Mock NIH Study Section – Grant Review
10	Visiting Professor / Participant Presentations	Visiting Professor / Participant Presentations

 This sample 2-year AARTSS curriculum provides the range of topics that may be covered but specific sessions may vary year to year. The curriculum is based on a 2-year cycle such that topics are generally presented every other year.*